6) Recommendations of the Dy. Director of Fisheries-cum-Team Task Leader vide
Letter dated 30.11.2015.
7) Recommendations of the Assistant Director of Fisheries-cum-Team Leader
vide Letter dated 18.11.2017.
8) Letter No.12/DDF(M)/Thane Relief/Left out/18-19, dated 28.02.2019 of the Director of Fisheries.

In exercise of the powers conferred vide G.O. 3rd cited above, sanction of the Secretary to Government (Fisheries), Puducherry is hereby accorded for the release of the second stage payment to five fishermen affected due to Thane cyclone who have fulfilled the eligible conditions for availing the second stage Thane relief amount and as recommended by the Thane Relief extension Team Leader and Team Task Leader of the Department of Fisheries and Fishermen Welfare, Puducherry.

2. WHEREAS the Government had accorded an expenditure sanction of Rs.6,81,62,000/- with permission to draw Rs.4,50,27,000/- only in advance, vide G.O. 4th read above, as a first stage payment and for its disbursement by way of e-payment to the 555 nos. of beneficiaries. Subsequently, the Government had accorded an expenditure sanction of Rs.85.45 lakhs towards release of 2nd stage payment to the 101 number of beneficiaries vide G.O. 5th read above. In compliance to the Government Orders, the Department had released the stage payments to the affected fishermen beneficiaries.

3. WHEREAS, 2nd stage payment was not extended to five number of fishermen beneficiaries in the annexure enclosed as their applications requesting the release of 2nd stage payment was misplaced during the shifting of the Fisheries Department. The five beneficiaries are part of the 555 beneficiaries who had received first stage payment vide G.O. 4th cited above. The five beneficiaries have duly complied with conditions for release of relief and submitted the application within the time schedule requesting for release of 2nd stage payment. Since the five applicants have fulfilled the conditions within 360 days of receipt of first stage payment, the Director of Fisheries has recommended the present proposal and seeking expenditure sanction towards release of second stage payment to them. The details of the five beneficiaries and the amount that has to be released as second stage payment are tabulated in the Annexure appended to this G.O.
