With reference to the above, the 42 number of Common Services Centres (CSC) have been rolled out with effect from 11/02/2013 with issue of Birth and Death Certificates online through the CSCs with the approval of the GOVERNMENT. Now it has come to notice that some of the Government Departments and Educational institutions are not accepting the Birth/Death certificates issued online through the CSCs and insisting the certificates issued from Municipalities/Commune Panchayats with ink signature.

In this connection, it is stated that the all records of Birth and Death Certificates stored in the database have already been authenticated by the concerned authority by using digital signature under Sec 3(a) of I.T.(Amendment) Act, 2008 and Section III of IT Act 21of 2000. Further the authenticity of the Birth/Death Certificates issued online can be verified at https://www.puduvaisevai.py.gov.in using the reference number and security code indicated in the certificate.
